Telephone Consultation for Emergencies

If your child or a family member suddenly becomes ill or is injured and you are unsure "Should we see a doctor?" "Should we call an ambulance?" Please use the telephone consultation

#7119: Emergency Medical Consultation (24 hours)
#8000: Pediatric Emergency Consultation (nighttime)
If you cannot get through to #8000, you can also call #7119.

A nurse or other medical professional will listen to the symptoms and advise you on the appropriate course of action. In urgent or life-threatening situations, do not hesitate—call 119 immediately. For more details, please visit the Nomi City Fire Department website
